

I don't understand how the Sinclair Broadcasting is getting away with this. I believe this should be considered a campaign contribution and subject to laws governing campaign contributions. Sinclair's bias is obvious since this is not the first time they have used their stations to push their agenda. It is frightening to me to think of how easily the information we receive can be controlled. I do not think they deserve to have their license renewed.